

Message Outline

Doug Kyle

January 29, 2023

Romans 12:3-5

3 Steps that Will Transform the Way You See Yourself

SERIES: 167: Worshipping God Every Hour of the Week

❏ DON'T think of yourself too highly

- I can do anything
- I can do everything
- I don't need anyone

❏ DO think of yourself rightly

- You are completely competent for what God calls you to do
- You are uniquely gifted so you can stop comparing yourself to others
- You are part of a community so it's not completely dependent on you

HomeGroup Questions

Winter Session 2023

3 Steps that Will Transform the Way You See Yourself | 167: Worshipping God Every Hour of the Week

Romans 12:3-5 | Jan 29, 2023

1. Having a positive self-image has been proven to be a great asset in life. What are the advantages? How can it be taken too far?
2. Read Romans 12:3-5 and review the outline and the message. What do you think Paul meant by not thinking too highly of ourselves?
3. How does our culture reward thinking, I can do anything, I can do everything, OR I don't need anyone?
4. After warning against thinking too highly of ourselves (arrogantly), Paul then counsels us to think rightly about ourselves (appropriately). In other words, God does want us to have a realistic and faith-filled view of ourselves. What does that mean to you?
5. As a supporting passage, Doug mentioned Psalm 8:4-6. How does it inform the way we should view ourselves?
6. What do you think are the unique contributions you make as a part of the Body of Christ?
7. Look at the three points on the bottom of the outline. How are these actually a liberating way to think about ourselves?
8. Which do you most need to incorporate into your thinking?
9. How can your group pray for you?