Romans 12:9-10

A Robust Love for Real Life

SERIES: 167: Worshipping God Every Hour of the Week

Christianity without love is a contradiction. It is the one ingredient that should permeate everything. Love is the most important thing you do.

📌 4 ways to improve the most important thing you do:

- Demonstrate it is genuine through actions

Romans 12:9a

- Focus on what's best for others

Romans 12:9b

- Expect it to age well

Romans 12:10a

- Always be looking for ways to honor others

Romans 12:10b

A Robust Love for Real Life | 167: Worshipping God Every Hour of the Week
Romans 12:9-10 | Feb 12, 2023

1. Think of a popular love song from when you were in high school. It's often striking to think what we mindlessly sang as kids. What is the essential message about love in that song? Is it consistent with how the Bible portrays love? Why or why not?
2. Read Romans 12:9-10 and review the outline and the message. How is this message different from the message we often get about love in our culture?
3. Doug said that love is the most important thing we do in this life. Agree? How would you defend your position?
4. Romans 12:9 begins, Love must be sincere (genuine, authentic, not hypocritical). How can you tell if love is genuine in others?
5. Look again at vs. 9? Can love and hate (literally abhorring and clinging) coexist? How so?
6. What does it look like for love to age well in marriage? In families? Among friends? Other believers? Those you work with?
7. How has someone honored you in a way that you felt loved? Why is this such an important ingredient in love? Have you seen it impact others when you honor them?
8. How will you incorporate this message this week?
9. How can your group pray for you?
