Called to Inherit a Blessing | Missed Calls

1 Peter 3:8-11 | October 27, 2024

1. What would you do if you received a phone call informing you that someone you've never met left you an inheritance? Would you believe it? What would you do with the inheritance?
2. Read 1 Peter 3:8-11 and review the outline. What stood out to you the most?
3. When has there been a time you received much needed encouragement from fellow believers?
4. In what ways have you seen the tendency to repay evil with evil and insult with insult lead to a downward spiral?
5. Have you ever seen prayer and blessing replace evil and insults? What happened?
6. What are Christians to do when repaying evil with blessing is developing resentment within them?
7. The blessing Christians were called to inherit, mentioned in verse 9, includes good days in this life. How do we understand this reality when we are in the midst of suffering?
8. What are some ways you are being challenged to seek peace and pursue it?
9. How can your group pray for you?
